NOTICE OF FREE TRAINING:

ASSISTING VICTIMS THROUGH CRISIS AND TRAUMA

Presented by
The United States Attorneys' Victim-Witness Programs for the Middle, Northern, and Southern Districts of Georgia

Co-Sponsored with FBI Victim Services (Atlanta Division) and
Licensed Professional Counselor Association of Georgia

September 18, 2008
9:30 AM - 4:15 PM

Registration begins at 9:00 AM
Richard Russell Building LP Auditorium
Atlanta, Georgia

You are invited to attend a training conference for individuals who work with victims of crime: victim advocates, counselors, social workers, law enforcement, and attorneys. The training will focus on working with victims in crisis and dealing with trauma. We are planning to have two very talented, and impressive speakers: Brian O'Gawa, Ph.D. and Ed Jacobs, Ph.D. Ed Jacobs is back from last year by popular demand.

Five Continuing Education Hours will be provided for Professional Counselors by the Licensed Professional Counselor Association of Georgia. We want to express our sincere appreciation to the Licensed Professional Counselors Association of Georgia for their CEU sponsorship. Also, application has been made for POST Credits for Law Enforcement.

There is no fee for this training. Space is limited so we ask that if you cannot attend, please send an individual in your place or inform us of your inability to attend by September 15, 2008. For cancellation, contact Christie Smith Jones at 404-581-6102, Beth Dozier at 404-581-6041, or Brittany West at 404-581-6179.

Please see the attached sheets for details and to register.

We must have your registration form by September 12, 2008!
